

The proposed changes in broadcast ownership rules are obviously highly controversial. I urge retaining the present rules until there is greater agreement on what changes are called for.